ENGLISH

This week we will continue to take a look at verbs. English 1 and 3 will have a quiz Friday and English 2 will take the verb quiz Dec. 15. In addition to verbs, we will focus on using vibrant verbs in our writing.

MATH 1 & 3

We will work with divisibility rules this week and then begin a short unit on measurement concepts.

MATH 2

We will work with solving fraction equations and measuring elapsed time this week. We will have a checkpoint quiz next Monday.

READING

Monday is the Set 10 Vocab Quiz so make sure you are prepared! Monday's class will also include the presenting of the Alien Cake Instructions. We will continue in our textbook this week working on the skills of following instructions, sequencing, figurative language and explanatory writing.

RELIGION

We will be back in our Religion textbook this week focusing on Advent and how we get caught up in other pre-Christmas activities. They will be encouraged to ask families what you can all do to make Jesus the center of your activities during this Christmas season.

SCIENCE

The 5th grade classrooms are filled with animals with adaptations. These were very creative and showed the concepts from the chapter. We will be wrapping up our study on adaptations this week.

SOCIAL STUDIES

We will start learning about
